

The Pickering Horse Centre
Winter In House Schooling Show Series

The Pickering Horse Centre will be hosting a Winter In House Schooling Show Series. This series of horse shows is open to all riders from Beginner to Advanced. Divisions are divided by the level of the horse/rider. There will be four shows in the series.

October 23, 2011...November 20, 2011...January 22, 2012...February 19, 2012

We will also be hosting a special Invitational Show on April 15, 2012 where we invite other barns to come to compete.

Ribbons will be given out from 1st to 8th place. Points are accumulated with each placing. At the end of the season the top 6 riders will win High Point Ribbons and Prizes. Riders must compete in 3 of the 4 shows to qualify. Horse preference is given on a first pay first served basis.

Specialty Awards will be given out at each show....

Awards will be given out to recognize riders who: showed great sportsmanship, showed the most improvement, had the best turnout and more!
